UNITED AIRLINES ANNOUNCES LOW FARES TO THE WINDY CITY

CHICAGO, April 18, 2011 – United Airlines (NYSE: UAL) is making it easy to plan your spring travels with fares from Paducah to Chicago starting at just $99* each way when you make a roundtrip purchase. United Express carrier SkyWest flies the twice-daily jet service between Paducah and Chicago using 50-passenger Bombardier-manufactured CRJ200 aircraft. Fares are available immediately and can be purchased at united.com or by calling 1-800-UNITED1.

Customers have convenient access to Chicago's O'Hare International Airport, where United offers nearly 575 daily departures to more than 145 cities worldwide. Travelers may also enjoy world renowned architecture, fine dining, and sporting events in the Windy City.

Flight schedule and equipment are subject to change.

About United

United Airlines, a wholly owned subsidiary of United Continental Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: UAL), operates more than 3,300 flights a day on United and United Express to more than 230 domestic and international destinations from its hubs in Chicago, Denver, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Tokyo and Washington, D.C. With key global air rights in the Asia-Pacific region, Europe and Latin America, United is a founding member of Star Alliance, which overall offers 21,000 daily flights to 1,160 airports in 181 countries.

United Continental Holdings, Inc. became the holding company for both United and Continental upon close of the merger transaction. The two airlines will operate separately as they begin to integrate key customer services, marketing activities and airport processes.
